

Tunes & toddler tantrums

Brush Brush Brush!

Roar roar roar! can you guess my name?
I'm Larry the lion and here's my shaggy mane
I have to confess that it's really quite a mess
And getting all those knots out really is a pain

So shall we brush brush brush from the top to the bottom
Brush brush brush, make it nice and neat
Brush brush brush, all those naughty knots out
Brush brush brush and you'll really look a treat
