

Tunes & toddler tantrums

Nappy Time!

I'm going to change my nappy
I'd better make it snappy
There's a whiff around here that's getting rather strong
I'm going to change my nappy
To keep my mummy happy
Before my little bottom really starts to pong!

I'm a wriggly beetle with my legs up in the air
I'll wriggle them over here and I'll wriggle them over there
We'll have a little wipe and make me nice and clean
Then I'll have the cleanest bottom you have ever seen.

I'm not quite sure but I think it might be funny
If I used my fingers to tickle this lovely tummy
I'll try this squidgey bit here and then this squidgey bit there
And then I'll tickle tickle tickle tickle everywhere!
